Dear Mr Bailey,

Re the proposed renaming of Cook Street Plaza and Esbank Walking Track:

As a resident and rate payer of Lithgow I strongly object to the renaming of both Cook Street Plaza and Esbank Walking Track.

Marjorie Jackson-Nelson is already recognised for her sporting achievements. If the Council wish to recognise her further then they would do well to ensure the ~~the~~ success of the "Lithgow Flash Foot Race" named in her honour.

As for the Esbank Walking Track being renamed the Sir Joseph Cook Track I consider this to be an insult to the memory of Sir Joseph Cook - an Australian Prime Minister. While I commend the Council for finally wanting to recognise the achievements of one of Lithgow's "sons" surely a more appropriate way can be found eg. 1. Rename the Lithgow library + Learning Centre in his name

2. Establish a park on the vacant block of land on the corner of Macaulay and Guy Streets - after all he lived in Macaulay Street
3. Have a bronze bust of him placed in the garden outside the Council Offices.

Yours faithfully
