

Hey Lithgow!

Let's make some short films!

Entries are now open for the Lithgow Film Festival 2011

Think Consequences....

The Lithgow Community Drug Action Team (CDAT) wants to generate discussion about alcohol in our community and what better way than through a short film.

Each entry must interpret or incorporate the following key statement,
'Think Consequences...'

Great prizes are on offer!

Groups are encouraged to apply!

Entry Deadline is 18th November.

(Post or drop off your entry in DVD format to Lithgow Youth-Worx 28C Main St Lithgow)

Winners will be announced and screened at Lithgow Cinema Under the Stars Event in January 2012.

The Lithgow CDAT is a group of local people and services, government and not for profit organisations working together to provide drug and alcohol free activities, education and information.

Privacy notice:

The art you enter may be used by Lithgow CDAT working group for community education purposes and other promotional activities.
